September 2019

We hope you all had a good summer despite the mixed weather. It's now time to start thinking about those shorter days and what we might be doing in the winter evenings. Please send in details about your events.

We have moved the adverts this month to accommodate the Questionnaire on the back page about the Playing Field. Please tear this off, complete and post in the new postbox next to the noticeboard

Severn Hospice Christmas Cards

Each year I have sold Severn Hospice Christmas Cards at both Ruth Blackburn's Macmillan Coffee

Morning, this year on 20th September, and the October meeting of the Sheriffhales W.I.

I will have a sample of each design available to view during September and October, either in my home, or I can bring them to your home. I will take orders for them and deliver at the beginning of November.

Last year we made nearly £500 for the Hospice and it would be lovely to overtake that this year - and with your help we can!

If anyone would like to see these cards ring Margaret Himsworth on 01952 460936

I am hosting a coffee morning on Friday 27th September 2019. Anybody welcome

To be held from 10am until 2pm. Homemade cakes, biscuits & savoury as well as tea & coffee Raffle & bric-à-brac
